Music Notes

Till the Storm Passes By

Tornadoes—they're scary, fascinating, and largely unpredictable. Al Roker, on Today, recently showed pictures of devastation all around the country. It's mind-boggling--some houses can be totally leveled to the ground, while a next-door neighbor's house will be left untouched. It seems there's no rhyme or reason as to who gets affected by these unruly storms.

My one-time experience with tornadoes goes back to my friend Danny, who played in the Redcoat Marching Band with me at the University of Georgia. In the fall of 1971, when we had a free weekend from band, Danny got me a date with his cousin Denise, who lived in nearby Bogart.

When I picked up Denise, I promised her parents to have her back by 11:00. We ate at a restaurant and then went to a movie.

The weather had looked a little cloudy in Bogart, but Athens was clear. However, when I took Denise back to her house after the date that night, IT WASN'T THERE!!! Apparently a tornado had come through and hit their house while we were gone. No apparent house, no lights, no parents! . . . what am I going to do? Remember, this was waaaaay before cell phones!

Finally, we found that Denise's parents had taken cover at Danny's parent's house, and they were all fine. Whew! In addition to the weather-related storms, people have "storms," or problems, in their lives too. It's been said all people are either in storms, going out of storms, or coming into storms. We all experience unfortunate events and strife in our lives. God doesn't promise us a life without pain and suffering. He does promise us he will be there with us no matter what the outcome will be. He tells us that He will be with us through all our stressful times.

It's no wonder that there are many songs about God taking care of us through storms. One well-loved one is "Til the Storm Passes By". Another one is "My Lord is Near Me All The Time."

*In the lightning flash across the sky His mighty power I see,
And I know if He can reign on high, His light can shine on me.
When the thunder shakes the might hills and trembles every tree,
Then I know a God so great and strong can surely harbor me.
I've seen it in the lightning, heard it in the thunder, and felt it in the rain;
My Lord is near me all the time, My Lord is near me all the time"*

Keep on Praying and keep on Singing!
Mike

Adults on Mission

JUNE News

What an awesome April and May Adults on Mission enjoyed, and one of the best parts was we got to share it all with YOU! In April, we hosted a missionary family serving with the International Mission Board as they spent time in the USA, and in May, we hosted Bill Barker, Georgia Baptists' missionary to Appalachia. We had worked diligently to be able to show the missionaries some of our handmade items that perhaps can be used as ministry tools when they return to the field. Following Mr. Barker's time with our congregation, we loaded his truck with children's clothing, shoes, socks, underwear, diapers, bears, book bags, toiletries of all kinds, etc. for our neighbors in Appalachia. Mr. Barker contacted us saying he had delivered all of our donations to God's Love from a Diaper Bag, located in Jenkins, Kentucky. Staff there expressed deep appreciation for every item. Thank you for ministering with us in both of these endeavors.

Now, here it is June, and you may wonder what ministry items we will be working on through the summer. Handmade items, bearing scripture, will be made for our SBC mission team who will be ministering to Kentucky residents in July. Immediately after the mission trip, we will prepare for the Turin Tractor Pull in August, and then comes the Coweta County Fair in September. Additionally, we will assist Andy Cook and his team of ten going to Zambia in October. The Lord has put many witnessing opportunities before us. With all that being said, we say we will have crafts every Wednesday at 10:00 a.m. through the summer, with the exception of the week of July 14th which is the week of VBS. YOU are invited to join us for any and all Wednesdays! If you have a heart for missions, Adults on Mission is YOUR opportunity to be a missionary from right here where you live. If you have questions, our team will be happy to answer them.

2019 AoM Watchword: "My dear friends, stand firm and don't be shaken. Always keep busy working for the Lord. You know that everything you do for him is worthwhile." I Corinthians 15:58
